Our Mission Agency Announcements:

Community Mission Deacons – Tuesday, October 27, 4:30pm zoom.

COATS LEFT IN WESTMINSTER HALL – Every year coats are left behind and forgotten in the church. We have gathered them together and plan to give them to someone who can use them if they are not claimed. With cold weather upon us, we want them used. Check your closets now! Are you missing a coat? If you want Rachel to look for a specific item you are missing, call or email now, rachel@firstpres.church. Next week, we will be donating them!

STYROFOAM COLLECTION: This Saturday, Halloween, October 31, from 9am-11am, The Environmental Stewardship Committee is hosting a Styrofoam dropoff. Please wear your mask and bring your clean, #6 styrofoam, to the church for a contactless, drive through drop off. Let's "treat" our earth.

DREAAM – Thank you to all who support DREAAM! We are so excited for DREAAM in that last week they opened the Dream Big Learning Centers providing educational and social emotional support to DREAAMers during COVID-19. In fact, our congregation and several others are using their facilities for in this important work. To do this DREAAM needs supplies for individual enrichment, such as educational activity workbooks for grades K-4th, small puzzles, Rubik's Cubes, math and reading flash cards, word search books, and anything educational that an individual child can use. Sharing of supplies during COVID-19 is not safe. Each DREAAMer will have an enrichment tub to use when he has completed independent work. We are being asked to mail or ship donations to UniPlace/DREAAM, 403 S. Wright Street, Champaign, IL 61820. We will have a drop off point at First Presbyterian for small items and someone will take them over to UniPlace if you cannot mail or ship them.

Salt & Light – Did you know that you can save while you shop at Salt and Light? Every dollar saved counts! Senior citizens can enjoy a 10% savings on groceries each Thursday while also supporting their mission through their purchases. A bit of history and a celebration: What is the Sialkot Convention? The Sialkot Convention has been in operation for 110 years. Christians from all over the world attend it, but it wasn't always that way. John Hyde, a partially deaf son of a Presbyterian minister was born in Illinois in 1865. He came to the Punjab region to preach. Hyde was to become God’s main instrument of revival in the Punjab region. He became known as “Praying Hyde”, “the Apostle of Prayer” and “the man that never sleeps”. The revival started in a girls school in 1904 and by 1905, more than 300 people attended the convention for 10 days. Inspired by John Hyde's prayer life, a group of missionaries formed the Punjab Prayer Union. Now, 110 years later, it is still in operation and still challenging people to follow God. PEB's very own Veda Gill, had the great honor of being asked to speak at this year's convention.

Faith in Action - Before the pandemic hit in March, over 700 people gathered at the Statehouse in Springfield to advocate for clean energy jobs. Now, it’s almost November and our policymakers in Illinois have yet to take action on climate change. We have one more opportunity when policymakers meet during Veto Session starting November 17th. Register for the first ever Virtual Advocacy Day on November 12 to tell our legislators we need them to take action on climate change by creating equitable clean energy jobs. Register today to hold your State Representative and State Senator accountable.
